This bibliography lists sources on writing that are appropriate for 6th to 8th graders and that are available from the Sioux Center Public Library. These texts deal with subjects from basic elements such as grammar and subject choice to more advanced topics such as voice, supporting an argument, and the responsibilities of the writer. Forms covered include screenplays, novels, autobiographies, plays, family histories, short stories, debate, and more.

Ackerman, Hal. Write Screenplays That Sell. Los Angeles: Tallfellow Press, 2003. 808.2 ACK. Covers the industry, what a screenplay is and is not, story structure, research, and short films. Detailed and useful. For advanced students.

Grant, Janet E. Young Person's Guide to Becoming a Writer. White Hall, VA: Shoe Tree Press, 1991. J 808.02 Gra. Covers using your imagination, keeping a writing schedule, how to decide what genre you should write, and how to work with the publishing industry.

